FULBRIGHT PORTUGAL FORUM

FULBRIGHT PORTUGAL FORUM

MAY 8, 2020 - 3-5.30 PM
VIA VIDEOCONFERENCE

www.fulbright.pt
SPEAKERS’ BIOS
André Peralta Santos

Andre Peralta-Santos, MD MPH, is a Portuguese medical doctor and a Public Health specialist, with ten years of professional experience in the area of Public Health and Health Policy. He worked for international organizations such as the WHO and the European Commission, as well as an advisor to national governments. He was awarded a Fulbright Scholarship to do a Ph.D. at the University of Washington focusing on health policies impact in population health trajectories. He is the author or co-author of several peer-reviewed articles and one book chapter on European health politics.
Beatriz Albuquerque

Beatriz received her bachelor of arts and Fine Arts from Faculdade de Belas Artes da Universidade do Porto, her Master of Fine Arts from The School of the Art Institute of Chicago and her Doctorate at Columbia University, New York with Fulbright and Foundation for Science and Technology scholarships. Awards include the Breakthrough Award for the 17th Biennial Cerveira; Myers Art Prize Award from Columbia University, New York; and the Ambient Performance Series Award, PAC / edge Performance Festival, Chicago. (www.beatrizalbuquerque.com).
Alfredo Soeiro

Degrees in Civil Engineering (UPorto, 76) and (UFlorida-Ph.D.-89 with Fulbright support), Pro-Rector of U. Porto (98/03), president of IACEE (01/04), president of AUPEC (01/05), president of SEFI (03/05), secretary general of AECEF (17/...), vice-president of ISHCCO (www.ishcco.org), member of ANECA EUR-ACE committee (14/...) and coordinator and partner of several EU projects in e-learning and author of several papers in e-learning, e-assessment, construction safety, construction management, quality of lifelong learning and use of digital tools in construction.
Don Bialostosky will be retiring from his position as professor of English at University of Pittsburgh at the end of August 2020. He served as chair of that department for eight years and has taught and served at several other US universities in the course of his career. He has published books on British Romantic poet William Wordsworth and Russian literary theorist Mikhail Bakhtin. His most recent book is How to Play a Poem from the University of Pittsburgh Press.

Don was the Fulbright Scholar in the Humanities at Universidade de Lisboa, 2019/2020.
Flávio Azevedo, a Fulbright fellow, is currently working as a senior researcher at the Institute for Communication Science (IfKW) at Friedrich Schiller University Jena, Germany. Recently, Flavio was also named as one of the 100 most influential early career Portuguese via the “Global Shapers” initiative by the World Economic Forum. Flavio uses comparative approaches and latent variable modelling to investigate the dispositional and situational processes underlying ideological subscription. Flavio is also interested in survey methodology applied to the measurement of latent constructs.
Claudia Meca

Claudia Meca is currently completing a Master of Environmental Management at Duke University in Durham, NC, as a Fulbright Student. From a young age, she has wanted to dedicate her professional life to mitigating environmental damage and protecting biodiversity. At Duke University, she has been introduced to the concept of Environmental Justice, a movement which was integral to the advancement of environmental rights in North Carolina. Environmental Justice highlights how certain communities are more vulnerable to environmental issues because of their socioeconomic status. Cláudia is currently involved in community organizing and advocacy projects with the goal of securing a right to a clean and safe environment for all people, regardless of wealth, race or citizenship.
Carolina Marques de Mesquita

Carolina Marques de Mesquita is a 2019 graduate of Arizona State University, where she studied political science and English literature. She is a recent alumna of the Fulbright U.S. Student Program in Portugal, where she served as an English Teaching Assistant. Following the Fulbright program, Carolina hopes to pursue a graduate degree in international relations to study issues of peacebuilding, gender, and migration on an international scale.

Carolina was a Fulbright English Teaching Assistant at Politécnico de Leiria School of Education and Social Sciences, 2019/2020.
#FULBRIGHTPORTUGAL

FORUM
FULBRIGHT PORTUGAL

MAY 8
FROM 3-5.30 PM (LISBON TIME), VIA VIDEO-CONFERENCE.

DIVERSITY, INCLUSION AND SUSTAINABILITY

SHARE IDEAS, FOSTER DEBATE AND FACILITATE CONTACT BETWEEN FULBRIGHTERS!

www.fulbright.pt